

Meeting with Farmers and Agricultural Scientists to promote IGNOU Programmes at Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Bhadohi

Meeting with practicing farmers, agricultural scientists and school dropouts were organized in association with Krishi Vigyan Kendra Bhadohi at the Farmer meeting Hall of KVK Bhadohi on 29/07/2024. The programme was chaired by Dr. Vishvendu Dwivedi, Head, KVK Bhadohi and Dr. U.N. Tripathi Regional Director was the chief guest of the inaugural session of the programme. Dr. Ashwini Kumar Singh, Deputy Director Agriculture Department, Bhadohi district was the special guest. Dr. U. N. Tripathi highlighted several Certificate, Diploma programmes and MSC Zoology, MSC Home Science Extension and Community Development and MBA(ABM) and provided an insight of the academic facilities, policies, student supports services and evaluation and certification patterns of IGNOU. He interacted with participants and Scientists of KVK and replied their queries. Dr. S.K. Pandey ARD, elaborated the available academic programmes of SOA i.e. COF, CIB, MSC FSQM, and discussed the opportunities and flexibilities of learning available for the students of Agriculture background. Dr. Vishvendu Dwivedi told that the SLMs of IGNOU is of very high quality and promoted participants to access it for better learning experiences. The programme was very interactive and learners were made aware about available IGNOU programme to enrich their academic profile and access of IGNOU student support services for value addition in their knowledge. Dr. A. K. Chaturvedi welcomed the guest and told the importance of training and education for skill developments. More than 50 participants and academics including Dr. Chaudhary, and Dr. Yogesh were present in the meeting.

